Recently a lank man with a kind of falsetto voice approached Mr. John McCullough the actor, and asked:

"Your name's McCullough, ain't it?"

"Yes, sir."

"Yes, sir."
"I'm powerful glad to meet you, John.

is Bill Peterson. Why, don't you remember when you played in Texas?
"Yes, I remember playing in that State."

"Yes, I remember playing in that State."

"Well, I was thar, right thar, sir. One night you played in—I forgot the name of the place. You played something about old Virginan, and in one place whar a fellow tried to take a girl away frem you, you snatched out a bowie and let ther have it. That place whar a old fellow named Dentist, or suthin' of that kind, got killed, and a lot of fellows put him on a tand-barrow or a couple of calls, I don't recollect which now, and toted him around. Now, don't you recollect that?"

"I cannot locate you," said the actor, amused at his simplicity.

"Don't recollect me! Maybe you was drunk. Come to think of it you did act curious after stabbin' the gal. Ranted around, laughed, lumped on a feller and choked him. But I never would have forgot you, old pard, drunk or sober. I had allus referred ta you as one of my friends, and that's what comes from takin' up with strangers. Superintendent PRACT OF 100 40-100 ACRES OF TRACT OF 100 40-100 ACRES OF GOOD LAND ON THE WILLIAMSBURG AND CENTRAL TURNPIKES, ABOUT ONE MILE EAST OF RICHMOND, AT AUCTION—In execution of a decree of Henrico Circuit Court, entered on March 8, 1881, in the suit of "Harrison vs. Harrison," &c., the undersigned appointed a special commissioner therefor, will sell by auction, on the premises, on TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 1881,

TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 1881, at 5 o'clock P. M., the VALUABLE TRACT OF LAND above referred to, being a portion of the "Waverly tract," formerly owned by the late William L. Harrison. It has a pretty front-partly on the Williamsburg and partly on the Central turnpike, and runs back to Ammon's creek. The Newport News extension of the Chesapeake and Ohio rallway runs through the tract. The quality of the land is good, and on account of its nearness to the city, on a good road, should attract attention of partless seeking lands for cultivation or for investment. A plat of the property can be seen at the office of the auctionieers. THE TERMS will be very liberal, and will be made known at the time of sale.

NOTICE TO INVESTORS.

We offer for sale a limited amount of RICHMOND AND DANVILLE KAILROAD 6 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS due in 1915 at 104 and accrued interest. These bonds are secured by a consolidated mortgage on the Richmond and Danville and Fledmont railroads and the lease of the North Carolins railroad.

We can confidently recommend these bonds, as the annual report of the company for the year ending 30th september, 1880, showed that the company had reduced its debt over $450,000 during the two preceding years, besides adding largely to its rolling stock and machinery, and purchasing 6.300 tons of new stock rails. For the seven montas ending Abril 30, 1881, the net receipts of the company exceeded $240,000, which is equal to 64 percent, on the capital stock of the company, after the payment of laterest, rents, and all other fixed charges, and expeading a large amount for equipment, steel rails, and additional work-shops.

THOMAS BIKANCH & CO.

The receipts of this company for carrying the mails for last April show an increase of over 100 per cent, over same month of last vear, and for freight of 39 per cent. Previous to 1st of May 40 per cent, of the Atlan'a and Charlotte freight business went via the Carolina Central railroad. Now all its through business goes by the Richmond and Dany ic railroad, which will add largely to its lucome.
